Established Banner Exchange website for sale built in PHP

Have you ever thought of starting your own banner exchange website but didn't know where to start?
What if I told you I was going to sell you a fully established website that has one of the best designs that a website can have. This site is sure to attract the attention of all webmaster looking to advertise a website or product.

Customers can sign up and you can give them some credits to sign up I think I have it setup to give 500 free credits for everyone who signs up and 1000 credits for everyone who refers some one that signs up.

The site is setup to only run 468x60 images which is the most used banner online. It has a little graphic at the bottom of every html banner code that gets added to webmasters sites so they can earn credits.
This site will earn you money by selling credits to webmasters, adding google ads or other affiliate codes, add your own affiliate banners to the site to be displayed on all webmasters sites in the network. This site is only limited to your imagination and your ability to advertise it. Go check out the site before you buy it so you know what you are getting
